ORDER

RONNIE ABRAMS, United States District Judge:

On July 17, 2019, after it was reported that this case had been settled in principle, the Court filed a 30-day order, discontinuing the action without costs. See Dkt. 64. The Court permitted the parties to reopen the case upon application if made within 30 days of that order. The parties subsequently filed four letters requesting to adjourn the deadline to restore the case to the Court's docket, explaining that they needed additional time to finalize the settlement. See Dkt. 65, 67, 69, 71. On October 30, the Court granted the parties' fourth extension request, giving them until November 12 to make an application to restore the case to the Court's docket. In that order, the Court stated that "[n]o further extensions will be granted absent good cause." Dkt. 72.

To date, however, the parties have not filed any notice that they have executed the settlement agreement or a stipulation of dismissal. No later than January 7, 2020, the parties shall file an update as to whether they have finalized and executed the settlement papers. If they fail to do so, the Court may dismiss the action for failure to prosecute.

SO ORDERED.
